

Elder Derek Lee Morehead Sr. was born on March 25, 1974, to Charles and Vennest Morehead, in Greensboro, NC. Elder Morehead is the youngest of three siblings. Elder Morehead graduated from James B. Dudley High School in Greensboro, NC and attended A&T State University, majoring in Civil Engineering, attained a BS in Business Management with a minor in Money and Finance from Guilford College. Elder Morehead found his way to the Body of Christ by way of an accident that should have killed him in June 1993. But, God had other plans. While the accident captured his attention, Elder Morehead later gave his life to Christ that same year.

Growing under the leadership of Bishop Kelvin E. Shouse, Elder Derek served his Pastor, youth and evangelistic ministries. The Lord gave him a Word that shifted his life. I will send you to a place to find the truth in Ministry and your wife! He matured in ministry under the leadership of Bishop Jeff Phifer and Overseer Cynthia Phifer. Elder Derek served as an Executive Board Member, Teacher of New Convert Class, Teacher Ministers in Training, Leader of Singles Ministry, adjutant, Director of youth ministry, Leader of evangelistic team, and Elder of Parrish Relations. It's during his service unto the Lord, that he opened the doors of the church to his now wife, Minister Delight Morehead. Serving the Lord faithfully and wholeheartedly, Elder Morehead received his call to ministry and gave his initial sermon in June 2001; entitled, The Uncircumcised Conversion."

On November 2, 2002, Elder Morehead married Minister Delight Morehead, and to this union they have four children, Derek (DJ), Collin, Ethan and Camille.

Having worked in many arenas, Elder Morehead was lead of the Lord to return to his foundation in Ministry at Calvary Covenant Fellowship in 2014. In 2021 the LORD divinely connect Elder Morehead to his current Pastor, Bishop Gilbert Robeson at Deliverance Cathedral Fellowship. From their God reset and launched Elder Morehead into his Pastoral call to the lost sheep in Wilmington DE. New Found Life Restoration Ministries was officially launched June 2, 2024. Elder Morehead's legacy goals are to establish Morehead Enterprises as a leading financial agency for his family, to build the nation's largest Tax service. His personal goal is to become a professional national speaker. He has made a successful first step toward this goal, by winning the North Carolina Toastmaster International District 37 Humorous Speech Contest on November 11th 2010. This is his most recent achievement in the secular community, making him North Carolina's funniest speaker.

Because he remembers his past, Elder Morehead often quotes "Become the Change that you Desire to See"

This is why he passionately believes in 2 Corinthians 5:17 "Therefore if any man [be] in Christ, [he is] a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."
